TALENT

Changeling

Fiddler Deborah Clark Colón guitarist and Karl Clark Colón join us from Columbus, OH. Changeling presents the fire and stark beauty of the Celtic traditions with "the power of ten in a package of two."

Kathy Anderson

Kathy has been calling and writing dances since 1982. She has brought her enthusiastic style to dancers across the US, Canada, and Europe. Her smooth vocal delivery and repertoire of quirky contras and high-energy squares make for a fun, challenging dance experience.

Coffee Zombies

Fiddler and composer Tom Cunningham and percussionist Bob Douglas of Louisville, KY join Dianna Davis of Indianapolis, IN to bring us high energy and a mix of hot tunes!

Susan Moffett

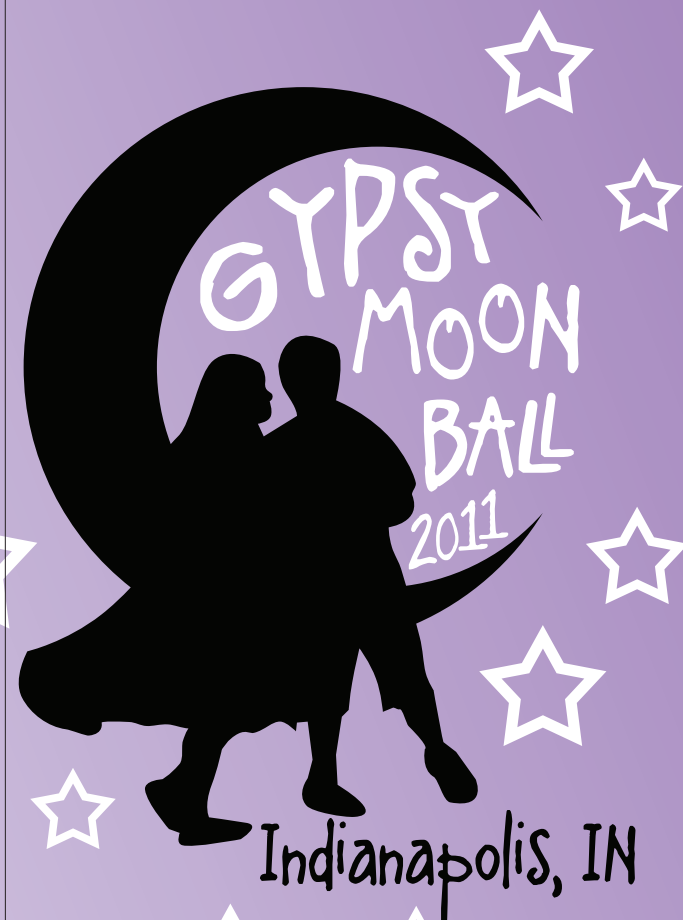

Susan Moffett has been calling contra and square dances throughout the midwest for many years. An avid dancer herself, Moffett brings infectious energy to any dance from venues as diverse as Tampa, Chicago, St. Louis and Charleston.

HOSPITALITY

Some of the Indianapolis dancers may be able to open up their homes to host guests. If you are interested in staying with another dancer for the weekend, please email indycontra@gmail.com.

Since hospitality is limited and will go quickly, you can find information about local hotels on our website at IndyContra.org.

Black shirt with blue & purple design.

COSTUME CONTEST

Don't forget your witch hat or pirate vest! Join us Saturday night at 8:30 for a costume parade and contest! Costumes are optional, of course.

VENUES

Zion Evangelical United Church of Christ

We will dance Friday night, Saturday all day, and Sunday afternoon at Zion Evangelical UCC, located at 416 E. North St. in downtown Indianapolis. Beautiful wood floors, so soft-soled shoes only, please!

Alternate Location

Our Sunday morning waltz will be held at a nearby alternate location. TBA. Visit IndyContra.org for venue updates.
