TALENT:

Cis Hinkle

Cis Hinkle has delighted contra and square dancers since 1985 with her skilled teaching, welcoming manner, playful enthusiasm, and masterful selection of dances. Cis calls dynamic contras and fast-moving squares with zest and simplicity. She is in great demand at music and dance festivals all over the US, England, and Denmark. When not on the road, Cis teaches t'ai chi classes in her native Atlanta, GA.

Bradley Smith

After stumbling into his first contra dance in early 2011, Kentucky resident Bradley Smith knew he had found something special. By August of that same year, driven by an incredible curiosity as to how contra worked and an overwhelming desire to give back to the community he loved, he found himself at his first callers workshop learning from the wonderful Carol Ormand. Since then he has continued to develop his style through workshops with many amazing callers such as Diane Silver, Cary Ravitz, Sue Rosen, Lisa Greenleaf, and Rick Mohr. Bradley aims to create a fun, energetic atmosphere with lively calls, intelligent programming, and quick and efficient teaching all done with a light touch.

Party of Three

Party of Three brings together three musicians from diverse musical backgrounds who share a depth of experience playing for dancing. Combining high energy Scottish and Cape Breton fiddle music with Latin and Funk influenced piano and drum grooves, Party of Three has been enthusiastically received by dancers across the mid-atlantic and northeast. Members include Lilly Pearlman on fiddle, Neil Pearlman on piano and Joe De Paolo on drums, doumbek and bodhran.

Mulberry Street

Mulberry Street hails from southwest Ohio and plays a mix of traditional, modern, and original compositions with a lush and richly textured sound. Fierce, soaring fiddle and pulsing accordion swing and harmonize around persuasive piano grooves, accented by driving foot percussion and hand drumming. They draw influences from many well-worn avenues (and some odd little alleys), mixing their love for what's come before with their urge to explore and create.

*Schedule is tentative and subject to change. Check online for updates.
